

FOOTY JAPAN COMPETITIONS LIABILITY & RISK DISCLAIMER

Version 1.0

Issued by Footy Japan Competitions under the authority of Footy Japan K.K.

1. Scope

This Liability & Risk Disclaimer applies to all participants involved in activities organised by Footy Japan Competitions, including:

- Tokyo Metropolis League
 - Footy Japan Cup
 - Kanto International Masters Soccer 7's
 - Footy Japan 7's tournaments
 - Friendly matches and training sessions where applicable
-

2. Assumption of Risk

Participation in football and related activities involves inherent risks, including but not limited to:

- physical injury
- collisions with other players
- environmental and weather-related conditions

By participating in Footy Japan Competitions, players acknowledge and accept these risks.

3. Medical Responsibility

Players are responsible for ensuring they are physically fit to participate.

Players with existing medical conditions or injuries should seek appropriate medical advice before participating.

4. Insurance

Footy Japan Competitions does not provide medical or accident insurance for participants.

Players are strongly advised to obtain and maintain appropriate personal insurance coverage.

5. Limitation of Liability

Footy Japan K.K., Footy Japan Competitions, and their staff, officials, and agents shall not be held liable for:

- any injury sustained during participation
- any loss or damage to personal property
- any medical or related expenses

Participation is undertaken entirely at the individual's own risk.

6. No Claims Policy

No claims for compensation, damages, or losses will be accepted by Footy Japan K.K. or Footy Japan Competitions arising from participation in any organised activity.

7. Compliance

By registering to participate in Footy Japan Competitions, teams and players confirm their understanding and acceptance of this Liability & Risk Disclaimer.

8. Authority

Footy Japan Competitions retains final authority over the interpretation and application of this Disclaimer.
